

Daily briefing

September 13, 2010

Johnson Controls helps clean up trail

Johnson Controls Inc. is partnering with Save the Poudre for a cleanup of trash along the Poudre River Trail in downtown Fort Collins on Sept. 25.

The event kicks off at Lee Martinez Park at 600 N. Sherwood St., Fort Collins, with registration at 8:30 a.m. and the cleanup from 9 a.m. to noon. The public is invited to help.

Volunteers are encouraged to wear long pants, a hat and closed-toe shoes. They also are asked to bring water, work gloves and sunscreen.

Other co-sponsors include Friends of the Poudre, Poudre Paddlers and the Sierra Club-Poudre Canyon Group. The city of Fort Collins stormwater staff will provide trash bags and will pick up the garbage collected.

Every year, Johnson Controls donates $1,000 from its Blue Sky Initiative to a local nonprofit and recruits employees to volunteer.

For more information, contact Gina Janett at (970) 493-4677 or visit www.savethepoudre.org or call (970) 493-4677.

Tynan's Kia sales beat projections

Tynan's Kia dealership, open since May at 2849 S. College Ave., Fort Collins, exceeded sales projections in August, according to the 47-year-old dealership.

"Our projections were for 40 new and used vehicles before we opened and July we sold 46 new and used, and August (we sold) 61," owner Ed Tynan said in a statement.

Tynan's is a family-owned and operated dealership selling Nissan, Kia and Saab.

The Kia dealership is open from 9 a.m. to 8 p.m. Monday through Friday and from 9 a.m. to 6 p.m., Saturday.

For more information, visit www.tynans.com or call (970) 377-6900.

Coloradoan staff

Advertisement

We focus on automating Marriott® Hotels' global invoice process. So they don't have to.

Learn more at RealBusiness.com

xerox
Ready For Real Business

Print Powered By  FormatDynamics™