

"Save The Poudre recently showed a wonderful documentary by Travis Rummel and Ben Knight called 'DamNation' at Mishawaka. What a great evening it was! We enjoyed the rousing songs of Michael Kirkpatrick and the dance tunes of The Big Motif sandwiched around an outstanding film about dams in the United States. Our Mishawaka host Dani Grant and event coordinator Caitlyn Solsky helped make it a night to remember. A big thanks to our sponsors: SpokesBuzz, KRFC FM, Scumpy's Cider, High Hops Brewing, Rocky Mountain Adventures, Greyrock Realty and The Drake Magazine. Our silent auction was a success due to all the wonderful businesses that donated items for sale: Mountain Whitewater Descents, Gearage Outdoor Sports, A-1 Wildwater, Starry Night, Outpost Sunsport, La Luz, Trees, Water and People, Curiosities, CranknStein, Happy Lucky Tea House, Wolverine Farm Publishing and Equinox Beer. Finally, our great volunteers made it happen ... a special thanks to Trevor Knight and Claire Burnett."

Gina C. Janett, Save The Poudre events coordinator